

Profile

Born and raised in a Buddhist family, AK became follower of Jesus Christ at the age of 24. In response to God's call he gave up his profession as a Vet doctor to evangelize and disciple students on University campuses in Northeast India.

He earned a Doctor of Ministry (2002) from Samford University, USA , and a Doctor of Philosophy (2007) in the Old Testament from Trinity International University, USA.

Currently he is the Ex. Director of TLA ministries, Director of South Asia ministries Words of Hope (WOH), Hindi Team Leader of the ReFrame Ministries, and the Pro-Chancellor of North East Christian University (NECU, India)

Asangla is a physician by profession. She also earned a Master of Divinity from Samford University, USA, and a Master in Counseling from Trinity International University, USA. They are blessed with three children: Sonam, Neema, and Joshua.
